

BASICS OF TELEMETRY

Telemetry – sensing & measuring of information at some remote location and transmitting the information to a central or host location. This information will be monitored and used to control a process at the remote site

COMPONENTS OF A TYPICAL WIRELESS TELEMETRY SYSTEM

How radio waves are sent through air?

Ans: when the electrical energy produced by the radio transmitter is converted into magnetic energy by the antenna

